

Vacancy

The Bank of Namibia seeks the service of a suitably qualified, experienced and competent person to join its workforce in the position of:

Technical Advisor to Governor: Governor's Office

The principal accountabilities of this position are to:

- Advise the Governor on monetary policy matters, reserve management and financial sector development issues by participating in relevant forums and reviewing relevant papers, legislation, policies and directives, active participation in relevant committees and drawing attention to any aspect that holds economic implications for Namibia.
- Provide critical technical input in policy development within the areas of Financial Markets, Economic Research, Payment and Settlement Systems to ensure central banking effectiveness and long-term relevance.
- Advise the Governor on trends pertaining to banking institutions and payment system developments and regulations to ensure a well-functioning, modernised and transformed banking and payment systems in Namibia.
- Provide advice and coaching support to core central banking departments to enhance execution and delivery of central banking mandate.
- Liaise with relevant interest groups, stakeholders and officials on behalf of the Governor when so requested.
- Provide advice on the financial implications of various national projects implemented under the Financial Sector System Program by the Bank as assigned from time to time.
- Provide strategic advice and support to the Bank on the Bank's financial affairs, industry financials, as well as analyse and advise on the possible cost cutting measures and policies to ensure that the Bank remains financially sustainable now and in the future.
- Advise the Governor on any other matter or business that either the Advisor or the Governor considers strategically important and relevant.

Requirements

- Masters Degree in Economics
- 12 years' experience in the field of Economics, Banking and Investments
- International exposure
- Executive leadership exposure and experience

Knowledge & Skills

- Knowledge of Central Banking, Banking, Payments and Settlements System, and BASEL III Requirements
- Corporate Governance
- Should be able to communicate effectively, good interpersonal skills, build and maintain relationships, problem solving skills, strategic thinking skills with good analytical and project Management skills as well as economic and financial skills.

Reporting

The position will report directly to the Governor.

For enquiries, please contact Ms. Lea Namoloh at: lea.namoloh@bon.com.na or at 061 283 5103 and for submission, please forward your CV together with a written application to Ms. Theopolitine Veii at: theopolitine.veii@bon.com.na

Closing date: Friday, 8 October 2021